A HEROIC DEED.

Surpassing Even the Deeds of Erowass of Every-Day Life.

A few months ago the country was thrilled with the account of a girl who, at the risk of her life, when the whirling flood of the swollen rivers was wasting great bridges from their foundations, skipped along the ties of a western railway, lantern in hand, and saved a train from certain destruction. The State of Iowa awarded her a suitable medal for her bravery. In this instance it was a child who saved the lives of many adults, but as a rule, the life of the child is in the hands of older persons.

In November, 1883, a little eight-year-old son of Danish parents was suffering with diphtheria. The attack was not severe, but he did not seem to rally after the throat was perfectly well. Nausea, headache and low fever succeeded the sore throat, and two or three days afterwards his limbs began to swell mysteriously. The skin became very dry, vomiting was frequent, nose-bleed was persistent, and nothing would stay in his stomach. "It was evident to our minds," says Mrs. Thos. Schmidt, wife of the vice-consul of Denmark, residing at Netherwood, N. J., "that some mysterious malady was working ruin in his system. Our physician said he had the terrible bright disease. To our suggestion that a certain preparation be tried, he made no objection. We gave him six doses of a tea, two teaspoonfuls at a dose, in sweetened water. It remained upon his stomach, and within a week there was marked improvement. The bowels became regular without the use of cathartics, and the nausea diminished; in three weeks there was a subsidence of the dropsy, and by the middle of May the limbs were perfectly normal. He had a good appetite, and could take three pints of milk daily. By the first of May he was up, and though he had spent six months in bed, he did not feel particularly weak. In June he was out, feeling perfectly well, and in July he weighed eight pounds more than he did before he was taken sick. To-day there is only a slight unfavorable condition in his system, and the physicians say we have every reason to believe the child will be perfectly well."

Mrs. Schmidt is certainly to be congratulated on the good use of Warner's cure, and she says: "We feel bound to make this truly wonderful result known, and perfectly willing to have this letter published." Gratifying as is the result wrought, it is by no means singular, for thousands of children, who seemed weak and puny, have had their entire nature changed and their future assured by a prompt use of the same preparation. Such disorders are transmitted by inheritance, or arise from children's remedies, the evil effects of which often prove fatal in later life. The secret of the ill health of many children is not their kidneys and liver are not performing their natural work.

It was a brave feat of the brave girl who crossed the swollen stream on the bridge to save the lives of the passengers, but it is a braver deed, and one worthy of wider recognition which, seeing the perils awaiting childhood, free from prejudice, with a purpose only to save by any effective means, preserves to us the lives of our children.

Beware of Mercury and Potash.

Mercury is more destructive to human health and life than war, pestilence and famine combined. So said a distinguished writer many years ago, and it is as true to-day as it was then. The poor victim of Blood Disease is drugged with Mercury to cure the malady, and then dosed with Iodides to cure him of the Mercurial Poisoning, but instead of any relief, the first breaks down his general health and makes him a cripple, and the other ruins his digestive organs. Mercury and Potash are dangerous even when administered by directions and under the eye of a good physician, and when put up in nostrums, often by incompetent persons, are apt to produce evil consequences. Be careful of these poisonous mixtures or you may regret it. Swift's Specific is entirely a vegetable preparation, and should not be confounded with the various imitations, non secret humbugs, "Success Altermans," etc., all of which either contain Mercury and Potash, or are composed of old remedies which have long since been discarded as of no value in the treatment of Blood Diseases, and none of them contain a single article which enters into the composition of Swift's Specific. There is only one Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and there is nothing in the world like it. Be sure to get the genuine.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.

I have been afflicted for nearly fourteen years with the severest form of inflammatory rheumatism. For a large portion of the time was confined to bed, and suffered the most excruciating pain, my legs badly swollen. My case was thought incurable by the physicians, and I have often hoped that death would ensue and relieve me of pain. Last month I secured, at the suggestion of a friend, one dozen bottles of Swift's Specific, and after about six bottles I am entirely free from pain, the first time in nearly fourteen years. My joints are becoming more supple and the swelling gone. I am ready to answer any inquiries as to the facts in the case.

A Good Many Failures.

During the year 1883 there were 10,568 failures in business in the United States and Canada. Some of these were big concerns, and some were very small. Failure is sorrowful business to any man, especially if it is health that fails. A great many times 10,568 people fall in health in the course of a year. Many of them might be saved if they would take Brown's Iron Bitters, the great family medicine and restorer of wasted health.

THE COMING EVENT.

A Festival of Wonders to be Presented by W. W. Cole's Colossal Shows.

The greatest of all the great shows is soon to be seen here; it is on its way, and is already heralded by a brilliant array of pictorial illustrations on the walls, and the newspaper announcements fix the date on which the canvases will be erected here as Tuesday, May 6th. This announcement will be hailed with unalloyed pleasure by our citizens with whom Mr. Cole bears an enviable reputation as an amusement caterer. To the lovers of the circus, Mr. Cole always presents an unexceptionable entertainment, while to the student of natural history the thoroughly complete menagerie of noble and well-kept specimens of almost every known species in the animal kingdom presents a field as interesting as it is varied. His exhibitions are given under a mammoth canvas pavilion, which is but one of a vast city of tents required to accommodate the entire outfit, and are replete with novel features, and requiring several rings and an elevated stage to introduce the programme of upward of sixty acts of which the performance consists. These embrace leaping, tumbling, trapeze performances, aerial bicycling, roller skating, bareback riding, performing animals, a troupe of Bedouin Arab athletes, with performing Turks, Moors, Mexicans, a snake charmer, trick elephants, a tight-rope walking horse, a two-headed cow, and numerous other features. Prominent in the menagerie department is Samson, the largest elephant ever brought to this country, and the white hippopotamus. Every feature about the show is a pleasant surprise while the management is simply perfect. It will be a grand festival for this and surrounding towns—an event that may not occur again in years, and none should miss it.

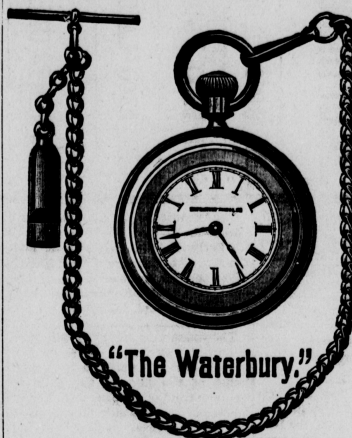

Editor Roundabout:
Having been strongly solicited by many good citizens for several months, and lately by "many voters," to become a candidate to represent Franklin county in the lower branch in the General Assembly, I announce myself a candidate.

I am not a candidate for public printer, nor the candidate of any man, clique, or ring; therefore, if elected, I will be free to work for the good of the county and State. Respectfully,
S. F. SMITH.

Still Remain.

Dr. J. I. Lighthall and physicians assisting him will be in this city until Tuesday next. All desiring treatment can, by calling at the camp, receive the attention their ailments demands.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class suitable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, MAY 2, 1885.

There was a slight frost in this locality Thursday morning, but little damage was done.

Let all the lovers of base ball turn out this afternoon to witness the first game of the season, between the Lexingtons and our home boys. We have a strong nine and a good game may be expected. Two stands have been erected, in both of which comfortable seats may be had, and the ladies who go out will be certain to have a good time.

A party of fishermen from Midway, composed of Town Marshal Davis, Mr. Joe. Williams, and several others, passed through the city Thursday afternoon on their way home from the Mouth of Elkhorn. They had very fair luck, having caught about 200 pounds of fish during their three days stay.

A colored boy by the name of Jack Bush, aged about 12 or 14 years, was drowned in a deep hole in Glens Creek, just below the Old Crow Distillery, Wednesday morning. He had been started home with a sack of flour by his step-father and stopped to play or fish near a foot bridge, which crosses the stream at that point, and either slipped or fell in, and being unable to swim was drowned. Going home at night the father found the sack of flour and a fishing line on the bank, and as the boy was not at home when he reached there, the pool was dragged and the body found. Coroner McEwan was notified and held an inquest Thursday morning, the verdict of the jury being death from accidental drowning.

Capt. H. B. Cammack.

The Blue Wing, one of the neatest and trimmest little boats that ever ran up the Kentucky, is shortly to be placed in this trade by the Kentucky River Packet Company, and our own Sonny Cammack has been given command of her. No better or more popular river man could have been selected for the position. Having worked his way up from third clerk under Capt. Sam. Saunders, and already proved that he was a brave, cool man in time of danger, he will discharge his duties faithfully, and his employers will never have occasion to regret placing their new boat in charge of Captain Cammack.

The boat is just from the ship yard, is handsomely fitted up, her cabin being supplied with a fine piano, and, having such a clever fellow for a commander, is bound to catch the trade on the river. Our merchants should now stand by our new made captain, give him all the freight they can, and make his little craft the boss of the river. Here's to you, old top. May you live long to sing out your orders from the hurricane deck.

Mr. Tom Small is agent for the boat in Louisville, and a good man will be selected for the agency in this city.

The Democratic party in this county now seems divided into two wings—the Early Birds or Moonshiners, and the Eleventh Hours, or Take It Easys. They held conventions last Saturday before breakfast, after breakfast, and after dinner, and still are not happy.

The young men of the city will give a hop at the Capital Hotel on the evening of the 10th inst., to the young ladies of the city and the Knights Templar from other places who may have arrived in the city to take part in the festivities incident to the meeting of the Grand Commandery the next day—the 20th.

While sitting on a fence last Saturday morning, Mr. John D. Griffin, Superintendent of the water works, fainted and fell backwards to the ground. His head struck a stone and he was rendered unconscious in several hours, but he is all right again and able to be about.

The lectures of Hon. Geo. R. Wendling at the Opera House Thursday evening and last evening were both very fine indeed, and were enjoyed by good audiences of our best people. He will close the series tonight, and no one should fail to hear him. His subject will be the "Individuality of the Devil."

The meeting which has been in progress at the Methodist Church for the past two weeks was closed on Wednesday evening. The result of the meeting was 26 additions to the Church.

The third quarterly meeting services will be held today and to-morrow, Rev. Joseph Rand, the P. E., officiating. The public are cordially invited to attend.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

FRANKFORT, MAY 2, 1885.

Common Pleas Court meets on Monday.

The Frankfort Base Ball Club went to Lexington yesterday to play the opening game of the season with the club in that city.

Rev. Dr. E. O. Guarrant, of Mt. Sterling, arrived in the city yesterday and began a protracted meeting at the Southern Presbyterian Church last night.

With a base ball match and primary election to-day, County Court Monday, and Circus Tuesday, to say nothing of the Indian Doctor, Frankfort, will have lots of fun for the next few days.

There will be a culled meeting of Frankfort Comandery, No. 4, K. T., on Thursday evening next, for the transaction of important business. A full attendance of the Sir Knights is desired.

The meeting at the Christian Church has resulted so far in the addition of twenty-five persons to the Church. The usual services will be held to-morrow morning and evening, but it has not as yet been determined whether the meeting will be continued longer than to-morrow night.

Tom McKenzie, a young man employed by Dr. J. L. Lighthall, the Indian doctor, as painter, was arrested Wednesday morning by Deputy Sheriff Dan. Meagher, on a requisition from the Governor of Tennessee, and turned over to an officer from Chattanooga, who took him back to that city the same night. He is charged with fraudulent breach of trust.

The most beautiful flowers to be seen anywhere are at the green-house of Mr. E. Power. Most of his plants are now in bloom and it will pay any lover of flowers to walk out there. He always has a large variety of potted plants at his establishment on Ann street, and will supply cut flowers on short notice. If you want a floral design tastefully arranged call and see him.

There is great complaint among South Side gardeners about the number of hogs that are allowed to roam the streets over there. There is an ordinance against it, and if it is worth keeping on the book of ordinances it certainly is worth enforcing. Hogs may be useful in hot weather to clean up the streets, but are a nuisance now. Let them be abolished.

Mr. Wood, manager of the Opera House, informs us that he will, in a short time have a first class Dramatic Company, at popular prices—the Bennett Matlack Combination in several of the legitimate plays. The N. Y. Herald has the following notice.

Mount Morris Theatre.
"A Celebrated Case" was effectively given at the Mount Morris Theatre last evening by Mr. Bennett Matlack's Company, before a large audience. The management put the piece on in handsome style. Mr. Matlack's "Jean Renaud" is deserving of notice, and was a clever bit of acting.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet next Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, in the chapel of the Christian Church. Will every member try to be present, as there will be business of importance before the meeting.

Wm. King, a negro ex-convict, has been obtaining money from our citizens for several days, in small sums, representing that he was collecting for the benefit of the Colored Baptist Church, to enable them to pay for an organ. He was pulled yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Dan. Meagher on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

Husbands, insure your lives with S. C. Bull, in the Mutual, of New York, and thus for a few dollars secure to your family a sum to take care of them when you are gone. Cash capital over one hundred and three million.

Hudson & Meagher have just received a new lot of neckwear. The newest styles and popular colors.

Having opened my ice cream saloon for the season, I would respectfully invite the ladies and gentlemen of the city to give me a call. Will keep constantly on hand the nicest ice cream and sherbet.

PIANOS AND ORGANS!---EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Bridgeport.

White washing next.
Milk and butter in abundance.
Fruit tree trimming in progress.
Miss Annie Angrave has recovered from her recent illness.
Willie Crockett, of Jessamine county, has returned home from a visit to relatives in this vicinity.
Miss Annie Crockett has returned to her home in Louisville from a visit to friends in this section.
Mr. John Angrave, who has been very much indisposed for a week or so, has about recovered.

Miss Alma Scofield left for Louisville last Tuesday to attend the marriage of her friend, Miss Carrie Bristow.

Mrs. Sarah Freeman has returned home from an extended visit to relatives in Owensboro and Louisville.

Sam Singleton's youngest child, who has been very ill for two or three weeks, died Thursday morning, April 30th.

Dr. William Bailey, of Louisville, made a flying visit to the sick bed of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Julia Bailey, last Sunday.

The idles of this vicinity are claiming that hens' eggs are hatching very badly this spring. A spring chicken may not be ripe.

Mrs. Nannie Pollard and son, Ernest, have returned home from a three months' visit to her daughter, Mrs. Mamie Struve, Massville.

Rev. B. F. Hangerford, pastor New South Benson Church, will preach at the Franklin Church to-day at 2 o'clock and 11 o'clock.

Mrs. Julia Bailey and Mrs. Ella Parrent are each dangerously ill with pneumonia.

LATER—Mrs. Bailey is dead and Mrs. Parrent is dying.

Messrs. Church and Major, candidates for the Legislature, laid their claims before the voters of this precinct by public speaking last Tuesday, but owing to the busy season only a small crowd was in attendance.

The Franklin County Teachers' Association will meet Saturday, May 9th, 1885, at ten o'clock, at which time and place all the teachers of the county are earnestly requested to be present.

The following is the programme for the occasion:
The best means to enlist the teachers in the work of Education—Col. T. B. Ford.

Is the one session a day best for country schools?—L. P. Hullett.

Essay, The School Teacher—Miss Katie Shipp.

Model lesson in Geography—Miss Sue Jenkins.

Fractions—C. H. Parent.

Primary Arithmetic—J. C. McChesney.

Model lesson in English Grammar—Mrs. Allie Jones.

Laws of health in Common schools—Thos. Hunter.

Essay, School houses—Miss Ruth Robinson.

General discussion.

We will say for the benefit of those interested, that the above programme would have been given at Ball's of the Roundabout but for the fact our communication of that date was lost.

STONEY CREEK.

No corn planted yet and not much corn ground broken up.

Miss Della Brawner is visiting relatives and friends on Bark Branch.

Miss Roberta Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jim Pence, in South Frankfort, this week.

W. F. S. Brawner killed a big coon and a hooting owl last week and we fear that he will supercede uncle John Smith, the champion hunter and marksman.

J. W. Steger has his Ferotype gallery located on Stoney Creek and is doing as fine work and making as good pictures as we have ever seen. J. J. Smith has bought a half interest in the gallery and they will locate at Ball's Mill the first of May for two weeks only.

Saturday is the day for the convention, and if Mr. Church sends out a little more of his apple jack and whiskey he will have enough to doot all the voters in. But we see some hurrahing for Church that could not swim, much less float.

Bald Knob can boast of having more candidates for Jailer than any precinct in the county. She has five. Uncle Jim is the man we ought to put in; Miram, too, says he is all the man that will do for the boys to tie to. Little Jimmie will laugh and grin for he thinks that he is the man to win; uncle Henry says the candidates are so many that his friends in Franklin county will put him in so he can draw the biggest old Ellish High will be obliged to you if you will elect him to the office for which he seeks, for he can walk all over Franklin county and attend to every body's business in one week. And there are two more who talk strongly of coming out on the track.

Cedar Run.

If the handsome Miss _____ comes to time with a batch of items you will again hear from him.

Vox populi, vox dei; now what the thunder was the use in Judge Craddock fling such gibberish as that to our country devils.

Our clever neighbor, Wm. Dunnegan, Esq., has a large lot of cord wood which he will put on the market during the summer if not disposed of sooner.

The voters in this section will insist upon Gen'l Scott Brown making the race for the Senate, its Franklin county's term and Franklin county wants Gen'l Brown.

That was a loud but lonesome vote last Saturday night. Andrew Scott, we admire his pluck, but wasn't we in a hopeless minority; the venerable G. W. Craddock sat down on his hind with a heavy thud.

A Sunday-school was organized at the Chapel last Sunday with Mr. Ben Hughes as superintendent. They will meet every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, sharp. Everybody is invited, and parents are earnestly requested to see that their children attend. Let them come, it will do them good.

It is said there is more real pleasure in giving than receiving, at least it seems to afford one of our bachelor friends a great pleasure in paying in his contribution to the Sunday-school.

He is not to blame for this seeming liberality. Bro. Savage knew who to select for treasurer.
